

PRIVACY POLICY

Please know that it is the policy of Council of Churches of Greater Washington (CCGW) not to disclose your personal information or information from your financial institution to any other organization, or business. We do not sell, rent, loan or exchange our mailing list to any other entity. The information you provide is used only within CCGW to ensure accurate, timely processing of transactions and/or donations. Everything is kept confidential, and we will remove any information from our files at your request. Please use our Contact Us form (found on our Contact Us Page) if you have further questions about our CCGW privacy policy.